Williamstown Elementary School Literary Magazine Submission Form 2009

Submission
Deadline is April 3

Guidelines for submissions:

Written work

Any written work will be considered for inclusion in inkspot Magazine: original poems, essays and stories under 300 words.

- Writers agree to have all work edited by magazine staff (grammar, spelling and word choices)
- Both writer and parent must agree to this and sign below (give the signed form to your teacher or drop it in the submission box at the school office)
- Materials may be published anonymously, but the submission form must include author's name and parent's signature at the time of submission
- Please submit an electronic file of the work via email to juliamunemo@mac.com. If you are unable to access email, please staple your work to the submission form. (inkspot is leaning green and trying to reduce paper waste this year!)

Artwork

Original artwork submissions are limited to one piece per artist.

- Both artist and parent must sign the submission form below
- Materials may be published anonymously, but the submission must include artist's name and parent's signature at the time of submission

Please understand that every effort will be made to include all submissions. However, if there is not enough space, the inkspot coordinators will form a selection committee to review submissions for inclusion. Note that all submissions whether selected or not will be displayed on the PTO bulletin board at the conclusion of the inkspot production process.

Please attach this signed sheet to your child's work when submitting. If emailing written work, please remember to also submit this form.

inkspot coordinators: Kate Bryant, Robin Kershaw, Julia Munemo, Laura Szczepaniak

I give permission for my child's work to be published in inkspot Magazine. I/we understand that the magazine staff might edit/crop the work. I understand that all pieces will be considered for publication, but that space may be limited.
